And overview of services for adults with developmental disabilities

What is the Adult Services program?

The Adult Services program provides support and services to individuals, ages 18 and up, who have developmental disabilities.

The program is operated in the STAR, Inc., building and each individual enrolled in the program is assigned an Individual Support Facilitator (ISF)

The Individual Support Facilitator is responsible for meeting the individuals needs based on an Individual Service Plan (ISP).

What is an Individual Service Plan?

An ISP is developed by a team of experts and includes information obtained by family members and care providers. Individual Service Plans are written by a Service and Support Administrator. Each plan is designed to focus on personal care as well as educational instruction. These plans are customized to meet the individual's needs.

What services are available?

Adult Day Services

Individuals enrolled in the Adult Day Services are assigned an Individual Support Facilitator with whom they meet upon arrival each morning.

Dependent upon the ISP, the individuals engage in various activities throughout the day including music, recreation, art, woodworking, etc.

These services are located in the STAR, Inc. building and are open from 9 a.m. to 2:45 p.m., Monday-Friday.

STAR, Inc. employment

STAR, Inc., is a private, not-for-profit company that provides employment to individuals with disabilities.

Work enclaves

These are arranged for individuals to work in groups under the supervision of an on-site job coach.

Contracts are established for various type of work including janitorial, lawn care, minor maintenance, etc. Workers receive minimum wage or above. Wages are paid by STAR, Inc.

Community Outreach

Provided through our mobile activity unit, this program provides volunteer opportunities throughout Scioto County.

Community Employment

Through the Community Employment program, area businesses work with STAR, Inc. to employ individuals directly. STAR, Inc. provides continuous support during the individuals employment such as transportation and follow-up training.

Special events

Part of the enhancement of individuals with disabilities is to provide an atmosphere of building relationships and providing recognition for achievements.

Throughout the year, participants have the opportunity to attend dances, sit on local and state committees, attend group outings and receive recognition during banquets. Please check the calendar of events for upcoming events an activities available.
